

17 Years Wandering among the Aboriginals

A true account of James Morrill who was shipwrecked off the Australian coast in 1846 and was rescued by the Aborigines, living with them for the next 17 years. The book includes over 100 photos of Aboriginal body decoration, dance and ceremony, weaponry, fishing, baskets, stone tools, housing, bush foods, tree climbing to obtain food, and fire making. Many of these photos date from the 1880s
