

Afghan Frontier: Feuding and Fighting in Central Asia

Every rock, every hill has its story, Winston Churchill wrote of the North-West Frontier, and here is the full story of these turbulent lands. Against a background of the history and geography of the region, the author paints a vivid picture of this extraordinary place. Drawing on written records, soldiers letters, memsahibs journals, travelers tales and first hand experience, Victoria Schofield unravels the history of the North-West Frontier layer by layer.
