

An Historical View of the Philippine Islands, Vol. 2 of 2: Exhibiting Their Discovery, Population, Language, Government, Manners, Customs, Productions and Commerce (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from An Historical View of the Philippine Islands, Vol. 2 of 2: Exhibiting Their Discovery, Population, Language, Government, Manners, Customs, Productions and Commerce Don Manuel de Leon, the new Governor of these islands, took possession on the 24th of September, 1669. The first act of his government was to declare that Senor Bonifaz, who had been Governor ad interim, had not been duly authorized, and though he confiscated his goods, he did not succeed in his attempt to imprison him, as the moment he gave up ts government, he retired to the convent of the Franciscans.
