

the Journey to the West (Chinese Edition)

Journey to the West is one of the Four Great Classical Novels of Chinese literature. It was written by Wu Chengen in the 16th century during the Ming Dynasty. The novel is a fictionalised account of the legendary pilgrimage to India of the Buddhist monk Xuanzang, and loosely based its source from the historic text Great Tang Records on the Western Regions and traditional folk tales. The monk travelled to the Western Regions during the Tang Dynasty, to obtain sacred texts. The Buddha gives this task to the monk and his three protectors in the form of disciples namely Sun Wukong, Zhu Bajie and Sha Wujing together with a dragon prince who acts as Xuanzang's steed, a white horse. These four characters have agreed to help Xuanzang as an atonement for past sins.
