

Fifty Years of Travel By Land, Water, and Air (Classic Reprint)

For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see, Saw the vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be ;S aw the heavens fill with commerce, argosies of magic sails, Pilots of the purple twilight, dropping down with costly bales ;H eard the heavens fill with shouting, and there rained a ghastly dew From the nations airy navies, grappling in the central blue ;F ar along the world-wide whisper of the south wind rushing warm, With the standards of the people plunging thro the thunderstorm.
