

Why I Hate Communist China: My personal experience with Mao's China

I must say that its quite unbelievable for me to see how many efforts the media are doing nowadays to brainwash people into accepting the Chinese values as the best in the world. Its also very surprising to notice that now almost every movie and TV series finds a reason to either talk or show China on the screens. I truly dont understand why so many people are suddenly obsessed about this country. I have lived there for several years of my life and left, like many foreigners do, because, after a while, its just unbearable, and it drives you crazy. There is too much insanity and injustice in that country. Its definitely not a place to live and much less worship as an ideal country. However, I decided to be more specific about my point of view, and thats the reason why this book was written.
