

Zizz!: The Life and Art of Len Lye, in His Own Words

Len Lye was startlingly original and endlessly inventive. Scottish poet Alastair Reid called the New Zealand-born filmmaker, kinetic sculptor, painter, and poet the least boring person who ever existed. Today Lyes work is held in major galleries around the world. In this captivating book Lyes biographer, Roger Horrocks, weaves the artists writings into a memoir of his fascinating life. Lye spent much of his life creating innovative art around the world, including New Zealand, London, New York, and Puerto Rico. Anyone interested in modern art and artists of the 20th century will be fascinated by these insights into Lyes mind and art, which are enriched throughout the book with visually striking illustrations that capture the essence of Lyes work.
