

Palestine: A Guide

Palestine: A Guide is an insiders look at where, and how, Palestinians live today. This remarkable tour through the historic Palestinian homeland is guided by some of the countrys most gifted writers, journalists, academics and photographers. Intimate and honest, this guidebook offers an insiders key to understanding the Palestinians and their relationship to their homeland, past and present. Explore the monuments of the past, as well as the vibrant towns, cities, hamlets and refugee camps of an emerging nation. Palestine: A Guide offers the visitor an authentic vision of why, despite lacking legal status as a state, Palestine is a real place on the world map.
