

The Hawaiians Deluxe Edition

The Hawaiians, a 1st edition deluxe presentation limited edition (#1512), text by Gavan Daws and Ed Sheehan, hundreds of outstanding photographs by Robert B. Goodman. Published in 1970 by Island Heritage Limited, Norfolk Island, Australia. 10 in. x 11 in., 296 pages including map and acknowledgements. Condition; book is fine, tight and clean with protective cover. Original slipcase is near fine with light sunning to the spine and edges. Beautifully bound by Makoto Binderies, Tokyo, Japan, with pure linen sailcloth over hand-beveled boards and a spine of top-grain goatskin stamped in genuine gold foil. The device on the front is an actual-sized reproduction of a stylized sea urchin from a rare piece of Hawaiian tapa cloth. The attractive slipcase and end paper design reproduces another early piece of Hawaiian tapa cloth. The book celebrates the many aspects of Hawaiian life from climate, weather and origins to politics, peoples and native customs. An exquisite and collectible book
