

Panoramic Journey Through Johannesburg & Surrounds

A river of molten gold pouring into ingots, the colour of a street market, the charm of a recreated mining village, this is Johannesburg, South Africa's throbbing financial heart and a lively cultural centre, with business hubs. It's also the starting point for ventures to Pretoria, South Africa's administrative capital, to ethnic villages, to mountain vistas, the glittering Palace of the Lost City, the Pilanesberg National Park and the national treasure that is the Kruger National Park. They are all here, superbly photographed and reproduced, creating a fine souvenir of this part of the country.
