Sam Song has a way with words. To teach, he's the best you have heard. The books that he writes are such marvelous sights learning Chinese each day word by word. Chinese words we can learn very fast. And when learned we cry Goodie, at last! For I must know the end. How that story doth wend and to know how it ends is a blast!--Poem by Poet Mrs. Carol Creed Each Chinese character, after going through several thousand years of evolution, is like an abstract piece of art. To be able to understand and read Chinese in minutes, surely it is not only a miracle, but also a special life experience for every English speaker. Steve Jobs was a great thinker and successful loving soul. In 2005, he made a commencement address at the Stanford University in America. He encouraged students to find what you love. In this miracle book we will help you read this portion of his speech in Chinese, so you can remember and write more than 100 Chinese characters in context! You've got to read this book to experience the miracle! (For most people, the hardest part of learning Mandarin is memorizing and writing Chinese characters. After reading the Sam's books in series, you will think the easiest part of learning Chinese is memorizing and writing Chinese characters, you will be able to remember and write more than 550 Chinese characters, and you will have a better understanding of Chinese language, such as how Chinese characters have been evolved for the past several thousand years, the relationship between Chinese character and the nature.)
