

Surviving the Open University: Hints, Tips and Experiences from Current Students

The essays and articles cover many aspects of OU life and weighs in at 20,000 words. This is NOT a lightweight, fluffy pamphlet. These are real experiences from real Open University student. This unofficial guide is written and collated by a team of current and former Open University students. The OU is open to all but is ultimately a higher education organisation and can be difficult to navigate. Whether you are new to the OU or a current student you will find value from the hints, tips and advice contained within. Join us over at the survivingtheou.com community.
