

The Old Wakefield Theatre (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Old Wakefield Theatre This little book sufficiently explains its own origin and scope. I have here only to gratefully acknowledge my indebtedness to the many friends who have given me the benefit of their local knowledge; and especially to Dr. Wright, for MS. notes of playbills in his possession, and of his visits to the Theatre; to Mr. Percival Barratt, for the loan of books of theatrical history; to Mr. Charles Skidmore, Mr. G. V. Ellerton, Mr. Henry Clarkson, Mr. W. H. Hughes, and Mr. George Wright, for permitting me to see and take notes of playbills; to Mr. Fred Simpson, for the loan of plans; to Mr. George Roberts, of Lofthouse, for a note from Hewitts papers; to Messrs. Sherwood and Banfield, for their courtesy in showing me over the building; and to the latter for information respecting its last years. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Forgotten Books uses state-of-the-art technology to digitally reconstruct the work, preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy.
