

Tipperarys Gift to China: Three Apostolic Lives (1863-1898) (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Tipperarys Gift to China: Three Apostolic Lives (1863-1898)The title of this little book sufficiently explains its scope. It tells the story of three Irish saintly and apostolic souls, who had this in common, that they all sprang from the soil of a single southern county, and all, in succession, carried the Gospel to far Cathay, at a period, not very distant, when the Chinese Mission was practically unknown in Ireland. There is also some thing remarkable in the chronological continuity of their record. Only one year alter the Tien-tsin massacre of 1870, in which Alice OSullivari won her martyrs crown, Father Patrick Moloney arrived at Kiang-si; and when in answer to his call, his cousin, Mary Ryan, came out in 1882, she was grieved to learn that he had just passed away in a lonely quest for souls.About the PublisherForgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
